

Cory Tiebout

Cory graduated from California University of Sacramento where he received his Bachelors Degree in Marketing. He has been a producer at PHP for over 20 years, specializing in insurance placement for the transportation industry. Cory became a principal shareholder in 1998 and is currently Vice President of Marketing & Agency Development. His responsibilities include retail, broker, and program marketing distribution, which includes creating, developing, producing and maintaining both insurance carrier and broker relationships. Cory's additional responsibilities include maintaining and consulting retail production at PHP. Paul Hanson Partners with acquired by Hub Specialty Programs on June 1, 2017 providing a broader base of insurance company partners from the Hub platform in North America